NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

A recent advertisement in the area daily has a number of local farmer-stockmen upset. These men, who have been getting only around 28 cents a pound on the cattle they have been taking to market, have discovered that a by-product from these animals is bringing more than the cattle will.

What is keeping the drug store-coffee shop crew buzzing is a recent ad for cow manure. It seems that cow manure is regularly priced at 3 pounds for $1.14 and sale priced at 3 pounds for 87 cents. This figures out per pound at 38 cents at regular price and 29 cents on sale. Now even these farmers are smart enough to figure out that that is higher than the price that they are getting for their animals.

Now, about all we can see is that they are concentrating on the wrong end of their product. They are worrying too much about each head of cattle that they are selling.

Of course one must admit that it is easier to find someone who will prepare the cattle for market than it is to find someone who will package this other product!

One of the best known ways to get rich is to come up with a gimmick that takes advantage of the public's vanity. One of these gimmicks that has been worked quite successfully the past few years has been some of the "Who's Who" and "Outstanding" publications.

We have received, and so have most members of our family, these letters informing us that we have been nominated for "Outstanding Americans In The Southwest" or some other such honor and of course with each of these has come an invitation to purchase a copy or copies of this publication.

Sue Cannon, publisher of The Olton Enterprise, recently devoted a column to the subject of these promotional schemes. She wrote in her column that a number of years ago she received one of these letters and actually was stupid enough to believe that she had been "Nominated" for that honor. So she said that she proceeded to fill in all the information (they don't know a thing about you except your name and address). They take the information you send them and put it in about a two inch space inside a book printed in the smallest type possible, with as many abbreviations as there could possibly be and still be sensible reading.

But the big play for them, she says is, "You may reserve your copy of this publication and save money at the same time. Only $45 for the two volume set or if you wish to purchase the volume that your biography actually appears, it is only $32.50."

Now, there has to be enough room in those volumes for at least

Fire Destroys School Building

The Hamlin Junior High School building and adjoining Public School auditorium were completely destroyed by fire here early Wednesday morning. The loss was estimated to be about $500,000.

The fire broke out in the ceiling area of the back of the auditorium and spread throughout the structure. The alarm was turned in to the dispatcher at 1:41 a.m.

The Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department was assisted by area Fire Departments, including units from Stamford, Haskell and Anson. Two "Cherry-picker" trucks belonging to the West Texas Utilities Company also were used in controlling the fire and keeping it from spreading to the nearby gymnasium and area homes.

Marvin Carlton, junior high school principal, was able to retrieve all the records and most of the equipment from his office in the building.

Bob Hawes, superintendent, was out of town for the spring holidays but was expected back Wednesday afternoon, according to W. T. Johnson, board president. No definite plans have been made yet on where the junior high classes will be held when school resumes Tuesday.

It was expected the old elementary building, which now houses the Remedial Reading Center, would probaby be used as well as some other classrooms within the system. Johnson said that it might be that the school system might need to use some of the church facilities within the community.

It is expected that it would be several weeks before any plans for the future reconstruction of the buildings could be made.

Johnson said that the district has about $480,000 in insurance on the building and contents.

The building, constructed in 1930, was originally the high school building until 1968 when the present high school building was completed. At that time the junior high students moved into the building.

Hamlin voters passed a $125,000 bond election in April of 1929, and bids were let in September of that year for the construction. The building cost $116,000 plus equipment.

The graduating class of 1930 was the first to use the auditorium and classes started in the building in the fall of 1930. Over 1,000 people attended the graduation exercises in the auditorium, according to newspaper reports at the time.

Workmen were busy after daybreak Wednesday morning cleaning up the area after the fire was brought under control. Fear was expressed during the height of the fire that chimney on the building would collapse and carry the fire over into the gymnasium building across the alley.

Both the south wall of the auditorium and the north wall of the junior high building collapsed while firemen were fighting the fire. No injuries were reported.

TO START APR. 8—

Tournament Re-Set

The annual Future Farmers of America Volleyball tournament has been rescheduled because of conflicts on the school calendar, says Milburn Wink, advisor.

Dates for the tournament in the public school gymnasium will be Apr. 8, 10 and 11. Some games may have to be played on Apr. 12, he added.

There will be five divisions, girls and boys, for junior high and high school age; men's and women's, those out of school and adults; and mixed, three men and three women.

Local businesses and individuals will be sponsoring teams. The sponsor pays $10. Trophies will be awarded to the sponsors and to the teams. These have been made by the FFA students.

This is the main fund raising project for the FFA chapter. The proceeds are used to send delegates to area, state and national conventions and to judging contests.

All participants will pay admission.

The gym is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings for practice except when in conflict with a school activity. Student teams will practice from 5:30 to 7:30 and adult teams will practice after 7:30.

Anyone who would like to sponsor a team or be a participant should contact Wink or Gary Finley, vocational agriculture teachers.

Lace appliques accented the long full sleeves and slightly gathered skirt. A ruffle flounce edged the skirt and chapel length train.

Bridesmaids' gowns were of yellow nylon flocked with white daisies lined with pale yellow taffeta and designed with low round neckline and long sheer sleeves.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will reside at 452 N. Central.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of ivory English net, re-embroidered Alencon, Point d'esprit, and Venise laces. The molded bodice featured a stand-up collar, long tapered sleeves and a yoke of English net. The slim skirt fell from an empire waist to a carpet-length hem and formed a circular chapel train. Narrow rows of Venise lace detailed the sunburst yoke, and trailed down the sleeves and skirt. Pearls and crystal beads encrusted the motifs of Alencon over the entire gown. Her veil of Alencon lace and

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

Don't open refrigerator door unnecessarily. Plan your trips to the refrigerator while cooking. Make sure the children maintain a closed-door policy.

Buy the size that fits your needs. An over-large refrigerator or freezer wastes space as well as electricity.

Clean external coils, fins and motor often and keep them free from dust.

Cleaning
Inside of cabinet
a. Should be cleaned twice a month
- dispose of forgotten foods
- clean up spillovers
- eliminate "off" odors that transfer flavors

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(March 27, 1925)

Mr. W. L. Hodges, proprietor of the City Barber Shop, has sold to Mr. W. M. Seymoure of Brady. And right here the Herald will say that Mr. Seymoure is a single man and from all information he is a real barber and a good fellow. He will find Hamlin a delightful little city in which to live.

O. M. Smith of Bronte was a business visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday. O. M. always seems glad to see his old Hamlin friends. He said he felt fine even through he had a broken rib.

R. E. Walker, of Hart, Castro County, arrived here Tuesday to accompany his mother, Mrs. W. P. Walker, back to his home. He says they all like the plains country fine.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has opened its convention headquarters in Mineral Wells having been assigned a suite of rooms in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

It will be noted with interest that Hamlin at last is sitting pretty as regards designated highways. Just last week, the Herald man had the pleasure of going before the Highway Commission at Austin with Judge Calhoun and delegates from Rotan, Clairemont and Post to ask for a designation extending from Hamlin to Post City by way of Rotan and Clairemont.

The American Legion has received a fresh supply of blank applications for your insurance policy. Rush up to Clem Calhoun's office or Carrol Routh's office and have them help you fill out your application. You owe it to your family.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world our nation and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

Farmers need a system of operation to maximize returns on their places says James Murphrey, Panhandle area farm management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The amount of light to which beef cattle are exposed prior to slaughter appears to have a significant influence on the degree of marbling in the carcass, says Dr. Jan C. Bonsma, visiting professor of Texas A and M University.

10,000 names (give or take a few) and biographies the way they are printed in such a condensed form. So even if only about half the nominees buy the books, look at the money this company is making. . . off of "vanity," "pride," "ego" or whatever you might want to call it.

We agree with Sue that something should be done to warn people who are offered the book that it's not what "it's cracked up to be."

She said in her column that last year at Hart High School, nearly every senior received a letter from this same office stating that they had been chosen for "Who's Who Among American Teenagers." Two "Drop Outs" received the letter! Now — how legitimate can that be?

Granted, there are some deserving people who should be recognized someway, but this is somebody's way of getting rich off of making people think they have received such an honor. And who, receiving such an honor, wouldn't like to purchase the book just to see what has been said? These companies are betting on that!

DOOR OPENERS

Keys and churches are door openers. In both cases, each require you to put forth some effort. The key you must insert in the lock and turn. Our Lord made the way to heaven even easier, for all that you have to do is present yourself and believe.

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works lest any man should boast: For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH — THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS—

Legislators Worry About Fund-Raising

AUSTIN—Legislators are getting nervous over new reform laws which restrict their political fund-raising.

House Speaker Bill Clayton has advised representatives to postpone their efforts to retire campaign debts until after the legislative session in view of warnings by a district attorney.

Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith told House leaders direct solicitation of Austin-based lobbyists for contributions to campaign warchests is a violation which he would feel called on to take before a grand jury.

The issue came to Smith's attention when a Texas Civil Liberties Union official, who is a registered lobbyist, complained that he had been solicited for a contribution to a representative's fund-raising reception in Dallas.

A provision of the new penal code makes it an offense for a legislator to solicit any benefit from a person known to have an interest in legislation. There are less - strict interpretations than the one by Smith, but the district attorney is the one lawmakers feel they must stay on the right side of.

Serious attention is being given to amending some of the laws passed in 1973—particularly the penal code provisions which cast a legal cloud on a lawmaker's accepting a "benefit" from a person who has an interest in any matter before the legislature or "contemplated" by the legislature.

LOSS REPORTED

A Texas Education Agency indicates students lost more than 2.4 million in tuition refunds they should have received from 19 proprietary schools.

When a student quits, he is supposed to get back the unused portion of his tuition within 30 days.

Woodrow W. Bean of El Paso, State Board of Education member, called on Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Atty. Gen. John Hill for a complete audit of all Texas Education Agency financial transactions during the last four years.

Bean charged refund losses may be as much as $5 million to $8 million. He also claimed (while admitting he could not confirm) that about $105 million in public funds administered by TEA has been "misused, misapplied or otherwise lost somewhere."

SMOKE BAN VOTED

Smoking in public places could bring a stiff fine under a bill just passed by the Texas Senate and sent to the House.

The ban covers elevators, theaters, movie houses, libraries, museums, hospitals, school facilities, intrastate buses, planes or trains — except in specifically designated areas.

SCHOOLS CRITICIZED

Some public schools and junior colleges have been criticized by House members for allegedly using emergency funds to raise teachers' pay, making investments and pave parking lots.

Rep. Tom Massey of San Angelo, House Education Committee chairman, said a special report is being compiled on the "abuse."

Rep. Fred Head of Troup proposed to repeal an $18 million emergency grant to meet junior college enrollment increases.

COURTS SPEAK

The State Supreme Court again upheld constitutionality of a law permitting legislator-lawyers to delay trials in which they represent clients. The Court said the continuance provision may not be used if only enforcement of prior court orders are involved, however.

Neinda Philosopher Says the American Public Slandered By Some Congressmen

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets riles up this week over some Congressmen's opinion of the American people, we think.

Dear editor:

I was alternately reading a newspaper and wondering if I could interest the CIA in finding a garden plow I lost somewhere around this place a few years ago. I know it's somewhere out there in the weeds and if the CIA has a few thousand dollars left over from its submarine job and can't think of anything else to do it's welcome to start looking — I won't tell anybody — when I ran into an article on the latest dope on the tax rebate Congress is fiddling around with.

According to it, some members of Congress are objecting to a tax refund for everybody on the grounds it wouldn't stimulate the economy because too many people would just take the money and pay off some debts or sock it away in the bank. "You can't stimulate the economy that way," they argue. "The money ought to go to people who'll send it."

This argument is a slander on the American people. If there's one thing you can trust the people to do it's to spend whatever handout they can get their hands on, from a $200 rebate to an average citizen to $200,000,000 to an average railroad. It's pretty clear those Congressmen must come from some part of the country nobody else has ever heard of.

Speaking of Congress, Secretary of State Henry Kissenger said the other day that he wouldn't have arranged the Paris peace agreement that stopped the fighting in South Vietnam a couple of minutes at least two years ago if he'd thought Congress wouldn't continue to appropriate money for that beleaguered country.

This is puzzling. You'd think that a man who has taught at Harvard and has been Secretary of State for several years and living right there in Washington would have learned you can't predict what Congress will do even tomorrow, not to mention two years hence.

Say, back to the rebates, there's a guy not far from here who has owed me $21.50 for four years and I was just thinking, you reckon he has refused to pay me because he thought I'd slow down the economy by socking it in a bank?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

In addition to coverage for workmanship and material related conditions as outlined in Goodyear's Manufacturer's Tire Adjustment Policy, all Goodyear Super Torque, Power Torque, Traction Torque, Sure Torque and Special Sure Grip rear tractor tires, except those branded or stamped "NA" (not adjustable), which during their original tread life become unserviceable due to field hazard damage, will be covered under this policy, excluding such damage resulting from fire, wreck, mechanical defects, underinflation, broken or kinked beads, or nail punctures.
At our option, we will repair at no charge a tire adjustable under this policy, or replace it with a new Goodyear tire of comparable grade and size, computed on Goodyear's printed "Predetermined Price for Adjustment" current at the time of adjustment, which price will fairly represent the actual retail selling price of the comparable tire at the time of adjustment, as follows: 25% Charge—with 75% or more tread remaining and in first 24 months of tire service. 50% Charge—with 50% or more tread remaining and in first 36 months of tire service. 75% Charge—with 25% or more tread remaining and in first 48 months of tire service.

MANY APPROACHES

Scientists seeking an answer to cancer are involved in many different kinds of studies—for example, virology (the study of viruses as a possible cause of cancer), cell biology and immunology (the study of the body's natural defense system). It's important to keep each kind of research going at top speed, say the American Cancer Society volunteers as they conduct the April 1975 ACS educational and fund-raising Crusade nationwide.

HUNTING EASTER EGGS—Children from the Day Care Center were treated to an Easter egg hunt near the high school Friday morning. Here, Christian Cowan, 2, and N. L. Norman Jr., 2, show that it is really quite serious—hunting these eggs. To the right, the children are shown intent on finding the 150 eggs which were provided by the FFA and FHA organizations. The FFA members and Center personnel supervised the children. The homemaking class of Mrs. Pat Willoughby dyed the eggs which were used along with candy eggs. Milburn Wink, advisor, and the FFA members went by bus to transport the children.

Pipers Place Second At Ranger Track Meet

Following a week's layoff, the Piper track team took second place honors at Ranger Friday with 94 points. Breckenridge won the AA division title with 105 points. The Pipers will be competing at Olney Saturday with the prelims set for 9:30 and the finals at 4 p.m.

Although the Pipers took second place in both relay events, they still managed to cut their time down on both from their previous best times this year. A bad handoff on the first leg of the 440 relay cost them a first place in the opening event. In spite of the bad handoff, the Pipers ran a 43.5, being edged out by Breckenridge by only inches.

The mile relay team led on the first three legs of the final event before losing out to Cisco. The Loboes ran a 49.7 anchor leg to take the race. The Pipers ran a 3:31.2 for second place and their best time of the season.

A highlight of the meet for the Pipers was the fourth place finish by their young miler, Dean Hernandez, who ran a 5:02.5. This was the first time the Pipers have picked up any points in this event in some time.

Are You Plated?

"Are you plated or belated?"

That is the question motorists may be facing after midnight, Apr. 1, deadline for motor vehicle registration in Texas. After that time, law enforcement agencies have been instructed to stop motorists not displaying the 1975 plates to remind them of their licensing responsibilities.

Since Feb. 1, county tax offices and selected substations throughout the state have been conducting registration business as usual. Early reports indicate the annual procedure, required of the state's 9.2 million motor vehicle owners, is running smoothly. However, many registrants traditionally wait until the "last minute" to react, resulting in longer lines and necessary delays.

A check here Monday with Louie Cunningham of Cunningham Insurance Agency, local substation for issuing the tags, indicates that about one-third of the vehicles in Hamlin were still untagged.

Cunningham reminded local motorists that they will have until Tuesday evening to purchase their license plates and also reminded them that his office would be closed Saturday.

According to a Highway Department spokesman in Austin, public response to the new five-year license plate, being issued for the first time in Texas, has been good. In fact, motorists have shown an uncommon interest in the "label" their motor vehicle will wear through 1979.

In lieu of annual replacement, motorists will be issued an adhesive-type sticker beginning in 1976, that will update their plate for another year of driving. The sticker will be placed in the debossed upper left corner of the plate. The following year, the tag will be stuck in the upper right corner to cover the debossed "75," and alternated for the ensuing years.

Once in place, the tags cannot be easily removed without deterioration, a part of the plan to discourage vandalism or theft.

County tax offices and substations will continue to issue annual plates to certain classes of motor vehicles. These include radio operators, dealers, government officials and those passenger cars displaying "personalized" plates.

But motorists are reminded that the registration deadline is midnight, Apr. 1.

Fire Destroys School Building

The Hamlin Junior High School building and adjoining Public School auditorium were completely destroyed by fire here early Wednesday morning. The loss was estimated to be about $500,000.

The fire broke out in the ceiling area of the back of the auditorium and spread throughout the structure. The alarm was turned in to the dispatcher at 1:41 a.m.

The Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department was assisted by area Fire Departments, including units from Stamford, Haskell and Anson. Two "Cherry-picker" trucks belonging to the West Texas Utilities Company also were used in controlling the fire and keeping it from spreading to the nearby gymnasium and area homes.

Marvin Carlton, junior high school principal, was able to retrieve all the records and most of the equipment from his office in the building.

Bob Hawes, superintendent, was out of town for the spring holidays but was expected back Wednesday afternoon, according to W. T. Johnson, board president. No definite plans have been made yet on where the junior high classes will be held when school resumes Tuesday.

It was expected the old elementary building, which now houses the Remedial Reading Center, would probaby be used as well as some other classrooms within the system. Johnson said that it might be that the school system might need to use some of the church facilities within the community.

It is expected that it would be several weeks before any plans for the future reconstruction of the buildings could be made.

Johnson said that the district has about $480,000 in insurance on the building and contents.

The building, constructed in 1930, was originally the high school building until 1968 when the present high school building was completed. At that time the junior high students moved into the building.

Hamlin voters passed a $125,000 bond election in April of 1929, and bids were let in September of that year for the construction. The building cost $116,000 plus equipment.

The graduating class of 1930 was the first to use the auditorium and classes started in the building in the fall of 1930. Over 1,000 people attended the graduation exercises in the auditorium, according to newspaper reports at the time.

Workmen were busy after daybreak Wednesday morning cleaning up the area after the fire was brought under control. Fear was expressed during the height of the fire that chimney on the building would collapse and carry the fire over into the gymnasium building across the alley.

Both the south wall of the auditorium and the north wall of the junior high building collapsed while firemen were fighting the fire. No injuries were reported.

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

A recent advertisement in the area daily has a number of local farmer-stockmen upset. These men, who have been getting only around 28 cents a pound on the cattle they have been taking to market, have discovered that a by-product from these animals is bringing more than the cattle will.

What is keeping the drug store-coffee shop crew buzzing is a recent ad for cow manure. It seems that cow manure is regularly priced at 3 pounds for $1.14 and sale priced at 3 pounds for 87 cents. This figures out per pound at 38 cents at regular price and 29 cents on sale. Now even these farmers are smart enough to figure out that that is higher than the price that they are getting for their animals.

Now, about all we can see is that they are concentrating on the wrong end of their product. They are worrying too much about each head of cattle that they are selling.

Of course one must admit that it is easier to find someone who will prepare the cattle for market than it is to find someone who will package this other product!

One of the best known ways to get rich is to come up with a gimmick that takes advantage of the public's vanity. One of these gimmicks that has been worked quite successfully the past few years has been some of the "Who's Who" and "Outstanding" publications.

We have received, and so have most members of our family, these letters informing us that we have been nominated for "Outstanding Americans In The Southwest" or some other such honor and of course with each of these has come an invitation to purchase a copy or copies of this publication.

Sue Cannon, publisher of The Olton Enterprise, recently devoted a column to the subject of these promotional schemes. She wrote in her column that a number of years ago she received one of these letters and actually was stupid enough to believe that she had been "Nominated" for that honor. So she said that she proceeded to fill in all the information (they don't know a thing about you except your name and address). They take the information you send them and put it in about a two inch space inside a book printed in the smallest type possible, with as many abbreviations as there could possibly be and still be sensible reading.

But the big play for them, she says is, "You may reserve your copy of this publication and save money at the same time. Only $45 for the two volume set or if you wish to purchase the volume that your biography actually appears, it is only $32.50."

Now, there has to be enough room in those volumes for at least

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of ivory English net, re-embroidered Alencon, Point d'esprit, and Venise laces. The molded bodice featured a stand-up collar, long tapered sleeves and a yoke of English net. The slim skirt fell from an empire waist to a carpet-length hem and formed a circular chapel train. Narrow rows of Venise lace detailed the sunburst yoke, and trailed down the sleeves and skirt. Pearls and crystal beads encrusted the motifs of Alencon over the entire gown. Her veil of Alencon lace and illusion drifted back from a beaded lace cap to a chapel length lace edge, beaded like her gown.

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

Don't open refrigerator door unnecessarily. Plan your trips to the refrigerator while cooking. Make sure the children maintain a closed-door policy.

Buy the size that fits your needs. An oversize refrigerator or freezer wastes space as well as electricity.

Clean external coils, fins and motor often and keep them free from dust.

10,000 names (give or take a few) and biographies the way they are printed in such a condensed form. So even if only about half the nominees buy the books, look at the money this company is making. . . off of "vanity," "pride," "ego" or whatever you might want to call it.

We agree with Sue that something should be done to warn people who are offered the book that it's not what "it's cracked up to be."

She said in her column that last year at Hart High School, nearly every senior received a letter from this same office stating that they had been chosen for "Who's Who Among American Teenagers." Two "Drop Outs" received the letter! Now — how legitimate can that be?

Granted, there are some deserving people who should be recognized someway, but this is somebody's way of getting rich off of making people think they have received such an honor. And who, receiving such an honor, wouldn't like to purchase the book just to see what has been said? These companies are betting on that!

DOOR OPENERS

Keys and churches are door openers. In both cases, each require you to put forth some effort. The key you must insert in the lock and turn. Our Lord made the way to heaven even easier, for all that you have to do is present yourself and believe.

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works lest any man should boast: For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS—

Legislators Worry About Fund-Raising

AUSTIN—Legislators are getting nervous over new reform laws which restrict their political fund-raising.

House Speaker Bill Clayton has advised representatives to postpone their efforts to retire campaign debts until after the legislative session in view of warnings by a district attorney.

Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith told House leaders direct solicitation of Austin-based lobbyists for contributions to campaign warchests is a violation which he would feel called on to take before a grand jury.

The issue came to Smith's attention when a Texas Civil Liberties Union official, who is a registered lobbyist, complained that he had been solicited for a contribution to a representative's fund-raising reception in Dallas.

A provision of the new penal code makes it an offense for a legislator to solicit any benefit from a person known to have an interest in legislation. There are less - strict interpretations than the one by Smith, but the district attorney is the one lawmakers feel they must stay on the right side of.

Serious attention is being given to amending some of the laws passed in 1973—particularly the penal code provisions which cast a legal cloud on a lawmaker's accepting a "benefit" from a person who has an interest in any matter before the legislature or "contemplated" by the legislature.

LOSS REPORTED

A Texas Education Agency indicates students lost more than 2.4 million in tuition refunds they should have received from 19 proprietary schools.

Woodrow W. Bean of El Paso, State Board of Education member, called on Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Atty. Gen. John Hill for a complete audit of all Texas Education Agency financial transactions during the last four years.

Bean charged refund losses may be as much as $5 million to $8 million. He also claimed (while admitting he could not confirm) that about $105 million in public funds administered by TEA has been "misused, misapplied or otherwise lost somewhere."

SMOKE BAN VOTED

Smoking in public places could bring a stiff fine under a bill just passed by the Texas Senate and sent to the House.

The ban covers elevators, theaters, movie houses, libraries, museums, hospitals, school facilities, intrastate buses, planes or trains — except in specifically designated areas.

SCHOOLS CRITICIZED

Some public schools and junior colleges have been criticized by House members for allegedly using emergency funds to raise teachers' pay, making investments and pave parking lots.

Rep. Tom Massey of San Angelo, House Education Committee chairman, said a special report is being compiled on the "abuse."

Rep. Fred Head of Troup proposed to repeal an $18 million emergency grant to meet junior college enrollment increases.

COURTS SPEAK

The State Supreme Court again upheld constitutionality of a law permitting legislator-lawyers to delay trials in which they represent clients. The Court said the continuance provision may not be used if only enforcement of prior court orders are involved, however.

Neinda Philosopher Says the American Public Slandered By Some Congressmen

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets riles up this week over some Congressmen's opinion of the American people, we think.

Dear editor:

I was alternately reading a newspaper and wondering if I could interest the CIA in finding a garden plow I lost somewhere around this place a few years ago. I know it's somewhere out there in the weeds and if the CIA has a few thousand dollars left over from its submarine job and can't think of anything else to do it's welcome to start looking — I won't tell anybody — when I ran into an article on the latest dope on the tax rebate Congress is fiddling around with.

According to it, some members of Congress are objecting to a tax refund for everybody on the grounds it wouldn't stimulate the economy because too many people would just take the money and pay off some debts or sock it away in the bank. "You can't stimulate the economy that way," they argue. "The money ought to go to people who'll send it."

This argument is a slander on the American people. If there's one thing you can trust the people to do it's to spend whatever handout they can get their hands on, from a $200 rebate to an average citizen to $200,000,000 to an average railroad. It's pretty clear those Congressmen must come from some part of the country nobody else has ever heard of.

Speaking of Congress, Secretary of State Henry Kissenger said the other day that he wouldn't have arranged the Paris peace agreement that stopped the fighting in South Vietnam a couple of minutes at least two years ago if he'd thought Congress wouldn't continue to appropriate money for that beleaguered country.

This is puzzling. You'd think that a man who has taught at Harvard and has been Secretary of State for several years and living right there in Washington would have learned you can't predict what Congress will do even tomorrow, not to mention two years hence.

Say, back to the rebates, there's a guy not far from here who has owed me $21.50 for four years and I was just thinking, you reckon he has refused to pay me because he thought I'd slow down the economy by socking it in a bank?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

GOODYEAR'S NATION-WIDE FIELD HAZARD ADJUSTMENT POLICY — FARM TIRES
In addition to coverage for workmanship and material related conditions as outlined in Goodyear's Manufacturer's Tire Adjustment Policy, all Goodyear Super Torque, Power Torque, Traction Torque, Sure Torque and Special Sure Grip rear tractor tires, except those branded or stamped "NA" (not adjustable), which during their original tread life become unserviceable due to field hazard damage, will be covered under this policy, excluding such damage resulting from fire, wreck, mechanical defects, under-inflation, broken or kinked beads, or nail punctures.
At our option, we will repair at no charge a tire adjustable under this policy, or replace it with a new Goodyear tire of comparable grade and size, computed on Goodyear's printed "Predetermined Price for Adjustment" current at the time of adjustment, which price will fairly represent the actual retail selling price of the comparable tire at the time of adjustment, as follows: 25% Charge—with 75% or more tread remaining and in first 24 months of tire service. 50% Charge—with 50% or more tread remaining and in first 36 months of tire service. 75% Charge—with 25% or more tread remaining and in first 48 months of tire service.
Applicable taxes and dealer services are additional. This policy does not in any way extend to consequential damage resulting from either workmanship or material related conditions or field hazard damage.
Coverage by this policy extends only to tires in agriculture use, excluding logging, industrial, and pulling contest usages.
No representative or dealer has authority to make any representation, promise or agreement except as stated herein.
This Adjustment Policy is not to be considered a guarantee or warranty because any tire may fail in service or otherwise become unserviceable due to conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer such as mechanical condition of the vehicle, improper tire maintenance, field conditions, etc.

MANY APPROACHES

Scientists seeking an answer to cancer are involved in many different kinds of studies—for example, virology (the study of viruses as a possible cause of cancer), cell biology and immunology (the study of the body's natural defense system). It's important to keep each kind of research going at top speed, say the American Cancer Society volunteers as they conduct the April 1975 ACS educational and fund-raising Crusade nationwide.

HUNTING EASTER EGGS—Children from the Day Care Center were treated to an Easter egg hunt near the high school Friday morning. Here, Christian Cowan, 2, and N. L. Norman Jr., 2, show that it is really quite serious—hunting these eggs. To the right, the children are shown intent on finding the 150 eggs which were provided by the FFA and FHA organizations. The FFA members and Center personnel supervised the children. The homemaking class of Mrs. Pat Willoughby dyed the eggs which were used along with candy eggs. Milburn Wink, advisor, and the FFA members went by bus to transport the children.

Pipers Place Second At Ranger Track Meet

Following a week's layoff, the Piper track team took second place honors at Ranger Friday with 94 points. Breckenridge won the AA division title with 105 points. The Pipers will be competing at Olney Saturday with the prelims set for 9:30 and the finals at 4 p.m.

Although the Pipers took second place in both relay events, they still managed to cut their time down on both from their previous best times this year. A bad handoff on the first leg of the 440 relay cost them a first place in the opening event. In spite of the bad handoff, the Pipers ran a 43.5, being edged out by Breckenridge by only inches.

The mile relay team led on the first three legs of the final event before losing out to Cisco. The Loboes ran a 49.7 anchor leg to take the race. The Pipers ran a 3:31.2 for second place and their best time of the season.

A highlight of the meet for the Pipers was the fourth place finish by their young miler, Dean Hernandez, who ran a 5:02.5. This was the first time the Pipers have picked up any points in this event in some time.

Are You Plated?

"Are you plated or belated?"

That is the question motorists may be facing after midnight, Apr. 1, deadline for motor vehicle registration in Texas. After that time, law enforcement agencies have been instructed to stop motorists not displaying the 1975 plates to remind them of their licensing responsibilities.

Since Feb. 1, county tax offices and selected substations throughout the state have been conducting registration business as usual. Early reports indicate the annual procedure, required of the state's 9.2 million motor vehicle owners, is running smoothly. However, many registrants traditionally wait until the "last minute" to react, resulting in longer lines and necessary delays.

A check here Monday with Louie Cunningham of Cunningham Insurance Agency, local substation for issuing the tags, indicates that about one-third of the vehicles in Hamlin were still untagged.

Cunningham reminded local motorists that they will have until Tuesday evening to purchase their license plates and also reminded them that his office would be closed Saturday.

According to a Highway Department spokesman in Austin, public response to the new five-year license plate, being issued for the first time in Texas, has been good. In fact, motorists have shown an uncommon interest in the "label" their motor vehicle will wear through 1979.

In lieu of annual replacement, motorists will be issued an adhesive-type sticker beginning in 1976, that will update their plate for another year of driving. The sticker will be placed in the debossed upper left corner of the plate. The following year, the tag will be stuck in the upper right corner to cover the debossed "75," and alternated for the ensuing years.

Once in place, the tags cannot be easily removed without deterioration, a part of the plan to discourage vandalism or theft.

County tax offices and substations will continue to issue annual plates to certain classes of motor vehicles. These include radio operators, dealers, government officials and those passenger cars displaying "personalized" plates.

But motorists are reminded that the registration deadline is midnight, Apr. 1.
